Dear Chris

I am writing to thank you and your team for the excellent sessions they led at Tarbert Academy.

I know that you have had some very positive feedback from students and staff already but I wanted to let you know how much we appreciated your input and time, especially as you carried out these sessions unpaid.

I was especially delighted to read the feedback from our Business Management teacher who was extremely impressed with your session with his Business Management students.

These sessions have helped us in our aim to offer opportunities to students to develop further their skills for learning, work and life and to help prepare them for the transition to the next stage in their lives post school.

Thank you again, very much, for your time and commitment and the obvious enthusiasm you and your team displayed to our students and staff.

Yours sincerely
